DECATUR CAPITAL MANAGEMENT INC.

CLIENT PRIVACY POLICY

As of October 1, 2026

Decatur Capital Management ("DCM"), its partners and employees, respect and are committed to protecting the privacy of you, our client.

As part of the strategic wealth management process, we gather a large amount of personal information about you and your financial situation. It is our policy not to disclose any nonpublic personal information about our clients or former clients to unaffiliated third parties; however, in order to facilitate your financial wealth management process, it may be necessary to provide certain specific information to your account custodian(s), estate planning attorney, accountant, or your other advisor(s).

These disclosures may include personal information about you such as your name, social security number, assets and income. Furthermore, regulatory authorities and law enforcement agencies may periodically review this information in order to determine compliance with securities laws.

If you prefer that we not disclose such information to unaffiliated third parties, you may opt out of those disclosures and direct us to contact you in advance each time we feel it is necessary to disclose personal or financial information to unaffiliated third parties as part of the strategic wealth management process.

Decatur Capital Management SMS Messaging Program

By opting in to the Decatur Capital Management SMS Messaging Program, you agree to receive recurring SMS/text messages from Decatur Capital Management at the mobile telephone number you provided. Messages may include customer service communications, account notifications, reminders, or service-related messages, depending on your relationship with Decatur Capital Management and the preferences you select.

Collection of Information

We collect various information on our behalf from and about you, including information you directly provide when you use the Messaging Service. For example, we collect the phone number you provided when signing up for the Messaging Service. When you send messages via the Messaging Service, we will also collect your messaging history between Decatur Capital Management and any information included in those messages.

Information We Collect

When you communicate with us by text or opt in to receive text messages, we may collect your mobile telephone number, SMS opt-in information and consent records, the content of messages exchanged with us, and information necessary to identify you and respond to your request or provide services.

Do not send passwords, full account credentials, Social Security numbers, or other highly sensitive information by text unless the Firm specifically instructs you to do so through an approved process.

Text messaging is provided as a communication channel and is not intended to replace official account statements, confirmations, disclosures, regulatory notices, or other documents that the Firm is required to provide through another method. The Firm may direct you to another secure or official communication channel when a matter requires additional security, documentation, authentication, or a formal record.

How We Use Your Information
We use information collected through our SMS program only as reasonably necessary to provide and administer our services and communicate with clients and prospective clients.

We do not use the SMS program to send marketing or promotional messages, solicit the purchase of investment products or services, advertise investment opportunities, or send discounts or promotional offers.

How We Share Information
We may share information with service providers that assist us in operating our business. Such providers may access information only as necessary to perform services on our behalf and, where applicable, are not permitted to use your information for their own independent marketing purposes.

We may also disclose information when required or permitted by applicable law, regulation, legal process, or regulatory or governmental request, or when reasonably necessary to protect the Firm, our clients, or others.

Mobile opt-in information, including phone numbers and consent records, will not be shared or sold to third parties or affiliates for their own marketing or promotional purposes.

No mobile opt-in will be shared with third parties for marketing purposes.

Additionally, we do not sell or share your SMS opt-in data or personal information with third parties for marketing purposes.

DCM is committed to protecting your privacy. We restrict access to client information to ensure that your personal information remains secure and confidential. We also maintain physical, electronic and procedural safeguards that comply with federal standards to protect your privacy.

In order to comply with the requirements of the Gramm-Leach Bliley Act and SEC Regulation S-P, we are providing you with a copy of our policy. In addition, the privacy policy can be found on our website: https://decaturcapital.com/assets/Privacy-Policy-2026

If you have questions or concerns about our Client Privacy Policy, please feel free to call Tamica Williams at (404) 270-9838.
